The Honorable Anne L. Armstrong
Chairman
President's Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Anne:

Several times a year we invite distinguished speakers to address employees of the Central Intelligence Agency on topics of concern in various fields. The objective of the program which began in 1973 is to improve understanding as well as provide an intellectual stimulus to Agency employees.

I would be very pleased if you could be our Guest Speaker on Tuesday, 14 September 1982, at 3:00 p.m. in our Headquarters Auditorium. If this is not a convenient date, we would be glad to select another time. Our program usually starts with a 40 to 45 minute address followed by a 30 minute question period.

I hope you will be able to participate in our program. Our Special Programs Officer, [redacted] will be pleased to discuss the arrangements with you or a member of your staff. She can be reached at [redacted]
